

“Just like me”

(After Katy Perry’s Chained To The Rhythm)

Am I crazy?
Living my life just for myself
Not caring 'bout anyone else
Stuck on a shelf
Cut-off causes trouble, trouble.
Can I burst this bubble, bubble?

We all lonely?
Now's our chance to make a change
Where finding a smile is not so strange
Rewire the brain
Connecting eases trouble, trouble
Connecting bursts my bubble, bubble

Chorus

Reflect: this person is 'Just like me'
'Just like me'

'Just like me', s/he has bad hair days
Work work work just to get them grades
'Just like me', stress goes on repeat
Thoughts chase around like chickens on speed
Yeah, we all crave free (Aha)
Think, s/he's just like me
Humanity's all just like me
Just like me
Just like me

'Just like me', s/he has a voice
Debt, debt, debt : what's my choice?
'Just like me', stress goes on repeat
Thoughts chase around like chickens on speed
Yeah, we all crave free (Aha)
Think, s/he's just like me
Humanity's all just like me
Just like me
Just like me

Can I listen?
Keep listening, not judging
Respect your voice, respect your mind
I can be kind
Connecting eases trouble, trouble
Connecting bursts my bubble, bubble

Chorus (see above)

How are we the same?
You eat, you fart, you feel the pain,
You act, you speak, you communicate
You worry, you dream, you celebrate
Diversity is freeing
But so is common ground
We're all a human being
Simple, profound
It's respect all round
We're being... we're being the change.

'Just like me', you can self-reflect
Dance, dance, dance empathy, respect
'Just like me', you can feel complete
Tuning in to a wisdom beat
Yeah, we can be free (Aha)
Think, you're just like me
Humanity can all be free
Can be free
Can be free
Open up and up and up
Open up and up and up
Open up and up and up
'Cause we're all linked to each other...
